Beach huts take another battering from the elements

SEATON beach huts took another hammering during last week's storms.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) crews were sent in to clear the debris and take any personal belongings to a safe place.

The huts and their owners had only just recovered from storms in late April when they were hit again on Thursday June 7th and Friday June 8th.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "No council-owned huts were destroyed but we understand that two privately-owned huts were badly damaged."

"The huts on East Walk were the most affected, with many being shifted from their normal positions."

"Once the weather improves, this part of the beach will be levelled so that all the huts can be restored to their original positions."

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

"StreetScene staff have already been clearing the site of debris and will continue to do as and when the need arises."

"If any personal possessions are found, they will be taken to the council's store in Seaton."

"If anyone has lost something that they think may have been picked up, they should call 01395 571615 to arrange collection."

The weather also disrupted traffic in the area.

For example, the A3052 was closed at near Boshill Cross after trees fell.

Trees also fell across driveways, effectively stopping householders from leaving or entering their homes other than on foot.

Kilmington-based farm workers Matt Williams and Adam Pike were called in to clear a fallen tree near Seaton last week.

The 50-foot-high tree fell onto a driveway and a fence, blocking access to several houses near Boshill Cross on the Thursday afternoon.

What is known as a telescopic handler and chainsaw were used to clear the area.

Speaking about the weather in general, a spokesperson for Devon County Council (DCC) said on Friday, June 8th: "Strong winds and heavy rain have kept DCC's highways teams busy overnight."

"The county was hit by storms from late yesterday with gales of up to 60mph and downpours affecting local roads."

"The council's Highway Operations Control Centre dealt with reports of more than 50 trees and branches down and eight flooding incidents between 4pm yesterday afternoon and 7am this morning."

AXMINSTER

Family returns to help project

AXMINSTER Arts has received a helping hand from the family of former garage owner Jack Webster.

The project to spruce up the frontage of the dilapidated former garage in Axminster town centre has also been given a new timetable.

The initial aim of having at least part of the mural for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee didn't succeed, but a revised and more realistic timetable has been announced.

Project co-ordinator Tim Leat said the aim is to have the middle gate section complete by the end of June, and the whole mural done by the end of August.

Artist Steve Fisher has now reached the stage where he welcomes help from members of the public to paint pieces of the mural in the studio opposite the site.

From the editor's chair Proud of my team...

WELL, we are almost back to normal after all the Jubilee excitement. There's a bit of red, white and blue still fluttering around our offices, although one of my sub-editors, after laying out dozens of Jubilee pages, said he never wanted to see another Union Jack for as long as he lives.

He didn't mean it!

I am really proud of my team at Pulman's View. They had to give up virtually the whole of Jubilee weekend to make sure we covered all the events for the 16 issues we publish in East Devon, South Somerset and West Dorset.

It was a demonstration of great professionalism and has restored my faith in the role of the local reporter.

In East Devon, reporters Anders Larsson, Laura Goldsbury-Noy and Francesca Evans did a brilliant job with deputy editor James Coles and sub-editor Lisa Bright laying out the dozens of Jubilee pages with great flare. And I should also mention our production staff - Jackie (my wife), Marie Churchill, Natalie Spiller and Mark Taylor - for their efforts, not forgetting entertainments editor Rob Larcombe and sports editor Howard Larcombe who all played their part.

As well as the extensive coverage to the Jubilee events in our own papers, we have also produced a souvenir publication containing photos of the celebrations throughout our distribution area.

This goes on sale at newsagents on Friday and you can also buy one by mail order by phoning our offices (01297 446057).

So we return this week to our usual mix of news, sport and features with special coverage of the Millway Rise FC presentation night following the club's best ever season.

And in my Editor at Large column on page 19 I recount how I got a bit panicky at the marquee dinner to celebrate the great times enjoyed by local footballers at Sector Lane.

OTTERY ST MARY Blooms targeted

OTTERY in Bloom displays produced for Ottery St Mary's Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations have been stolen from their site.

Last year, Ottery in Bloom reported to the police a case of mindless vandalism to some of the attractive flower displays on St Saviours Bridge after they were dumped in the river.

Within a few days of the planted tubs being sited and with Union Jack flags displayed in them for the Jubilee weekend, two of the tubs have gone missing completely.

The tubs supplied and tended by Otter Nurseries, which are in bloom with red Geraniums, white begonias and blue petunias are fitted with wires in the base of the tubs each attached to the structure of the bridge which would have had to be cut away to remove the displays.

Ottery in Bloom has gone to great lengths to arrange for the planting in 2012 to be done before the towns Jubilee activities and the group along with their many volunteers were rightly proud of their efforts.

Representative of Ottery in Bloom, Keith Spittlehouse said: "This is the third year we have had problems with our displays on St Saviours Bridge and it is a very disappointing situation."

HONITON Decision delayed

A TOP council chief has described the chance of East Devon District Council moving headquarters from Sidmouth to Honiton within two years as "extremely remote".

EDDC has since confirmed that a decision deadline has been moved from October 18th this year to some point in December.

EDDC appointed consultants in mid-March to check out the viability of the proposed move.

The appointment was announced in a press release dated March 15th, and it was also explained that the council hoped the move would be completed within two years.

COLYTON Silverware stolen

ALMOST £10,000 worth of silverware was stolen during a house burglary in Colyton.

The break-in happened at some point between 10pm on Thursday, May 31st and 9.30am the following day.

A house in Queen's Square was targeted and police say that a window appears to have been forced open. Police have issued an appeal for information and a list of items taken.

Anyone with information is asked to call 010 and ask for Honiton CID quoting KN/12/228.

Peco say farewell to Sue

By Laura Goldsbury Noy

laura@pemedial.co.uk

AFTER forty-two years of service at Pecorama at Beer, the company has said goodbye to the much-loved Sue Nia.

Sue joined the company on October 20th 1969 working in the small factory, which was then located on Harbour Road in Seaton.

At that time the business was considering expansion and in 1971, the complete production unit moved to Beer, bringing Sue with it.

Over this time, Sue would have seen many changes within the work place, not only with methods of production and machinery but also many different staff faces.

It is interesting to note that Pecorama has many long serving staff members, however, after Sue's retirement, only two members of staff arte left that go back to the 1960s- Bob Phelps and Robin Hammett.

Managing Director of Pecorama, Michael Pritchard, said: "Sue has been a first class model employee, giving 100 per cent since she started and it could be said it was quite a hard job to press her away from her production tasks, even on her retirement day, last Thursday.

"A small gathering of staff assembled in the company's meeting room to not only thank her for past service but also to wish her well for the future and make a presentation of a complete IT system, together with digital camera."

Sue is pictured in the centre holding her bouquet of flowers, surrounded by friends and staff at Pecorama.

Beer Wellness Weekend

■ SOMETHING a little bit different took place in the Station Gallery at Pecorama last weekend when the site played host to a Wellness Weekend. A variety of local therapists offered free taster sessions to visitors and were on hand to give demonstrations and advice on: Aromatherapy, Reflexology, Pilates, Nordic Walking, Sound Therapy, Hypnotherapy, Reiki, Acupuncture, Beauty Therapy, McTimoney Chiropractor and image consultation. Pecorama would like to thank Claire Harding, Lindsay Shadrach, Helen Rogers, Gabrielle Lansbury, April Rose, Maggie Green, Val Davis, Beverley Moore and Sophie King who brought their expert therapy techniques to the two day event

Olympics '48 sailing relay re-staged

AN OLYMPIC torch relay from the 1948 Games will be re-enacted in the West Country and will visit several local yacht clubs.

A replica 1948 sailing torch will be transported by water along a string of sailing clubs in Devon and Dorset, marked by beach parties along the route, to recreate the journey made 64 years ago.

In the summer of 1948, a torch-bearer ran through the Torre Abbey, Torquay, to welcome athletes from 25 nations. Torbay was the scene of the last Olympic sailing events in Britain.

This time, the iconic beacon began its journey in Torbay where it was sailed to Paignton Sailing Club. John Maynard, who competed in the 1968 Olympic Games sailing in the Finn Class, was on hand to receive the torch.

The torch will now journey up the coast, visiting 16 sailing clubs along the way including the Axe Yacht Club and the sailing centre at Weymouth, where yachtsmen and women from all around the world will compete for medals this summer.

The replica torch will arrive in Seaton by boat from Beer Sailing Club on Saturday afternoon (June 16th) and, if the weather is fine, will be handed over by sea between dinghies and perhaps a lugger around lunchtime in the centre of Seaton Bay. If weather is a problem, the hand-over will take place by road rather than sea.

The torch and its bearers will then be welcomed with an informal reception at the Axe Yacht Club Clubhouse which, weather depending, may include a barbecue.

The torch will then be on display in the clubhouse throughout the following week until Saturday June 23rd when it will be handed over by Axe Yachtsmen and Women to Lyme Regis Sailing Club.

During the week, the torch will be taken by Royal Yacht Association representative, Tony Woods to Seaton Primary School and Colyton Grammar School where a 'Feva sailing dinghy' will be displayed alongside the torch in a special assembly.

Meet the police

■ THE Axe Valley Neighbourhood Beat Teams from Seaton and Axminster invite members of the public for coffee and biscuits next week.

The get-together takes place at Seaton Police Station, 76 Queen Street from 10am to noon on Monday (June 18th).

The public will be able to meet the teams covering the Seaton and Axminster areas and talk over any concerns or issues you may have.

Jubilee cream tea at the Co-op

■ STAFF at Seaton's Co-op held a Jubilee cream tea party in store for their customers in aid of the Devon Air Ambulance. Alongside a selection of refreshments, homemade cakes and scones, the store was decked out in bunting with a special section devoted to the tea party. Pictured are staff members dressed in red, white and blue alongside visiting customers enjoying the cream tea. Organiser Di Hawker said: "We would like to thank all our customers and staff for helping to raise £190 for the Devon Air Ambulance."

■ AGE UK Devon's Seaton volunteers held another successful party last week, this time to celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee. The indoor tea party, held at Number One on Harepath Road, played host to 60 of Seaton's elderly residents. The guests were treated to a feast of goodies including freshly made scones decorated with jam, cream and fresh fruit alongside teas and coffees. Despite the gusty weather, the Mr Whippy van from Beer also made an appearance, serving ice cream and lollies to the partygoers.

News briefs

AXMINSTER Hospital League of Friends is urging members of the public to attend its annual meeting on Friday, June 15th in the town's guildhall.

In a statement issued through Axminster and District Seniors' Forum, Axminster GP and league of friends member Phil Taylor said: "This year we are encouraging attendance from anyone who is interested in the future of healthcare in Axminster."

"The recent NHS and Social Care Act has placed decision making in the hands of clinicians in clinical commissioning groups. At the AGM we have three speakers who will set the scene about the health issues which our community faces and explain how clinical commissioning will work."

A car, parked in Cherry Tree Road in Axminster, was damaged at some point between 5.30pm on Friday, June 8th and 11am the following day.

Police say the Vauxhall Zafira had suffered a dent and it looked as if someone had fallen into the vehicle.

Anyone with information is asked to call 101 and ask for Axminster police.

The incident reference is KA/12/314.

Clair takes big leap to victory

A ROAD safety campaigner from Axminster took a giant step towards victory when a planning application was submitted.

Clair Lawrence has campaigned for more than half a year to improve the situation outside Axminster Primary School in Stony Lane.

She has been behind two petitions to Devon County Council (DCC) and attended highway surgeries to promote her cause.

DCC submitted a planning application for a 50-metre long footpath on Monday, May 28th – so it seems Clair's efforts paid off.

Her concern is that pedestrians crossing Stony Lane at the college sports field footpath are put at risk for a number of reasons.

DCC has been very open about its plans to create a footpath alongside Stony Lane, but Clair has been frustrated by the time it has taken.

At one stage, DCC said the aim was to submit the planning application in April this year, which didn't happen. DCC said there had been a delay but was confident the overall project timetable wouldn't be affected.

The aim is to construct the footpath in August, providing the application is successful.

Clair realises the application must be approved, but said: "I'm ecstatic."

"This hurdle was the biggest one and I've done it with the support of people in the town.

"Hopefully we will get a safe crossing for us and our children."

The planning application describes the project as follows: "A 1.5-metre wide footway inside the Axe Valley Community College's sports ground."

"It is proposed that the path will run 50m along the field's boundary with Stony Lane."

"At the end of this length the path will take a right hand turn through an existing hedgebank to a proposed pedestrian crossing that links to Axminster Primary School."

"The scheme will provide a safe means of commuting to and from

Bus chaos

■ MILD traffic problems were encountered in Axminster when a bus broke down at the traffic lights next to Trinity Square. Police had to be called in to direct traffic as engineers tried to revive the stricken bus. It was First's 31 service from Bridport to Axminster which suffered engine problems at about 10am on Tuesday, May 29th. A First spokesperson said: "We can confirm that one of our vehicles did unfortunately break down in Axminster. The engineering team were sent to the scene to recover the bus and a replacement vehicle was also deployed by the depot to maintain the rest of the service. The bus was nearing the end of its journey at the point at which it broke down, thus the impact on those customers on board at the time was relatively contained. We obviously apologise for any inconvenience that the incident caused though." It is understood that those waiting to join the service back towards Bridport at 10.12am suffered a longer delay than those on board the bus when it broke down.

MP to make splash at pool event

LOCAL MP Neil Parish may make a splash when he visits Flamingo Pool in Axminster to raise the profile of a mammoth fundraising task.

The MP for Tiverton and Honiton constituency will visit the pool on Friday, June 22nd at 11am.

A total of about £55,000 is needed for the Flamingo Pool Liner Appeal. Flamingo Pool manager Steve Buxton explained: "The pool, when it was built, was one of only a handful of stainless steel pools in the country – this design means any underground problems can be spotted easily and the pool itself is lined and not tiled."

"This liner is now in need of replacement at an overall cost to the pool of approximately £55,000."

"Neil Parish is asking the community to get behind its pool once more and take a small spare change box home."

"If we can get 1,500 homes to put their pocket change in the box over the next few months then it's just a small matter of £23 per box to pay for the liner itself – a huge achievement."

"To help towards the £55,000 needed, the pool is also launching the Olympic Swim Challenge."

"We are planning to arrange for staff and customers to swim every one of the 86 Olympic swimming events and try their best against the current Olympic record."

The Flamingo Pool was opened in 1998 after a huge community effort and with a Sport England Lottery grant.

It has served the community without any council or government funding for 14 years thanks to support from the local community in various ways, including usage of the pool, volunteering at the pool and fundraising for the pool.

■ THE NUMBERS ARE UP: Becky Darby, Karen Price, Gareth Parker and Shirley Parris have just conducted the draw. Sue Hodge, Janet Probert and Diana Church were the three winners in Friends of The Flamingo Pool 100 Plus Club June draw. The draw took place at the Axminster pool on Friday June 1st and Gareth claimed the top prize of £50 whilst Janet collected £30 and Diana £20. It is £26 a year to join the monthly draw, and more information is available from the pool reception

■ GUTEN TAG: The British hosts and their German visitors line up outside Axminster Tool Centre headquarters. Twenty-two senior directors from the German federation of mail order companies recently visited the Axminster company. Marketing co-ordinator Jacqueline Hunt said: "The visit was part of a tour by the German party of small to medium size businesses in Warwickshire, South Wales and the South West. The main purpose of the visit being a networking and fact finding mission, focusing on logistics and distribution. Some of Axminster Tool Centre's directors and senior managers plan to make a return trip later this year"

News briefs

A SCHOOL and church will start a joint programme of 150th anniversary celebration on Friday June 15th in Axminster.

St Mary's RC Primary School head-teacher Mark Brown explained: "There has been a Catholic primary school called St Mary's on the present site for 150 years."

"Whilst nothing of the original building remains, the determination of those people all those years ago to provide the best possible education for the children in their community in a Catholic context remains the same."

The programme includes a talk by David Wells on the history of the school and church in the school hall, starting at 7pm on Friday, June 15th.

Two days later, on Sunday, June 17th, the church will hold mass at 9am.

The school hall will also host an exhibition, with light refreshments available. Bishop Christopher will lead mass in a marquee in the school field on Monday, June 18th, starting at 9.15am.

AXMINSTER man Martin Painter has changed his Land's End cycling project. Instead of cycling from Axminster to Land's End, the 20-year-old will cycle from Land's End to Axminster.

As previously reported, Martin is doing the ride to raise money for a trip to Burkina Faso in Africa, where he will help United Nations Association of International Service with various projects. His plan is to set off today (Tue) and arrive in Axminster no later than Saturday June 16th.

More information about his trip is available online at www.justgiving.com/martinafricasupport12.

many groups joined in the day, showcasing their work, story and talents including the Youth Air Cadets, Devon and Somerset Fire Service, Royal British Legion Riders, RNLI, Merchant Navy and St John Ambulance Service.

Lieutenant Colonel Michael Goodliff MBE officially opened the event held on Saturday morning and promoted the Army Benevolent Fund.

He said: "It is nice to see young people and air force cadets working alongside the more senior members of the armed forces to promote their work."

"There is no doubt that Seaton's branch of the Royal British Legion do a terrific job and do all kinds of activities to bring together local groups and charities.

"The day shows that the various represented groups are one big family, and nobody need feel lost, cut out or forgotten."

"Throughout the lives of members of the armed forces, there is always help at hand, and there are many charities such as Help for Heroes who gain an overwhelming amount of support for this."

Chairman of Seaton's Royal British Legion, Derek Payne, added: "Thank you to everyone for coming along today. It is good to show our appreciation for our armed forces, who keep us protected on a global and local scale."

The children and staff dressed up in blue, iced blue cakes, painted blue paintings and played with blue spaghetti.

■ YOUNGSTERS from Colyton Caterpillars and Colyton Primary School learnt all about science during an activity morning at the school.

There were many activities for the children to try out, including learning what plants need to grow, and parents were given tips on how to introduce science to their children from an early age.

Thanks from Christian Aid

Company donates £1,500

■ AXMINSTER-BASED company Lowara donated £1,500 to the chardstock park trust for improvements to the village playground. The trust took over the playground in 2009 after it was closed down due to poor equipment and a loss of insurance. They have since made drastic improvements, creating 70 per cent more space and installing a new swing set, tyre swing and climbing frame. Trustees have lots more plans for the playground, including creating a separate play area for toddlers, installing a zip wire, football goal, storage area and more wooden sculptures. Duncan Lewis from hydraulic pumps company Lowara, along with colleague Mark Richards, who also is a member of the park trustees, presented a cheque to trust chairman Brendon Wellman and secretary Donna Jacobs

Ornament stolen from driveway

AN ornament worth about £3,600 has been stolen from a driveway in Yarcombe.

The stone lion was removed at some point between 8am and 12noon on Monday, May 28th. A police spokesperson said: "The lion is extremely heavy and would have needed more than one person to move it and transport would have also needed to be used. If anyone saw this lion in transit or is offered this lion for a reasonable price or resale, then please contact us on our 101."

The crime reference is KA/12/292.

Heated debate on village flood plans

A MUCH-NEEDED flood defence scheme for Feniton may cost £1.6m. Feniton councillors and residents heard at their May meeting.

East Devon District Council engineer, Keith Steel and Environment Agency officer, George Arnison attended Feniton Parish Council's meeting, to give an update on plans for a flood defence scheme.

There is concern among Feniton residents about flooding, following the devastating flooding of October 2008. A campaign – Fight for Feniton's Future – aimed at resisting excessive development in the village was launched last year, by concerned residents.

At the Feniton Parish Council meeting on Monday evening, Mr Steel and Mr Arnison outlined two options to counteract the problems.

The first option involved digging two large lagoons – one next to Louvigny Close and the other to the north of Station Road, where the stream starts, to collect floodwater, but this was not thought to be the most effective option, although it would be less expensive.

The favoured option involved constructing a new pipe to Station Road that would tunnel under the railway line and past Metcombe and Sweetthams Cottages on Ottery Road.

The underground pipes would then release the water in a ditch in an area where there was no danger of it flooding Feniton properties.

This will cost around £1.6m to achieve. The main discussion on Monday evening revolved around where the money might come from to fund this scheme. Last year East Devon District Council slashed its £33,000 budget for flood defence.

The move was vigorously opposed by councillors Roger Giles and Trevor Cope. But the majority of the council voted through the plan.

Councillor Brown told those in attendance at the Feniton meeting that he would lobby EDDC for flood defence money.

However, EDDC has already agreed its budgets for this financial year.

He said that in his view Feniton needed more development in order to fund a flood defence scheme.

There was then a debate about an existing planning application for 32 dwellings at Acland Park, outside Feniton's built-up area boundary.

Developers interested in building at Acland Park are offering around £64,000 to contribute to the flood defence scheme.

Many residents at the meeting were worried that with around £1 million still to be found, even if the Environment Agency and DEFRA funded half the flood defence scheme, any further development at this stage would simply worsen the flooding problem.

They queried what the hurry was with the Acland Park application. But councillor Brown said there was a "huge hurry" to secure an approval for the Acland Park development because of the public inquiry appeal (for 50 houses) by Wainhomes at Louvigny Close.

He added that the 'package' the developers were offering was good and that residents couldn't keep saying a "blanket no" to planning applications.

Feniton Parish Council (FPC) chairman, Martyn Smith described the Acland Park developers, which appear to be prioritising a range of funding for community facilities before their offer of funding for the flood defence scheme, as 'cynical'.

He said: The parish council might consider supporting an application at Acland Park, but only on the understanding that no houses were built prior to the village receiving the funding promised by the developer, for the flood defence scheme."

FPC is now seeking to open discussions between EDDC and developers on the best way forward.

Seaton cartoons

■ WITH reference to Rich Webster's letter regarding the 'Seaton Cartoons' I do feel that he should check his facts regarding town councillors.

I am sure he will find that they do not receive salaries, therefore they will certainly not be drawing 'overpaid final salary pensions'.

If Mr Webster is unhappy at the way the council conducts its business perhaps he will volunteer his services and become the 'new blood' when the next opportunity arises?

*Ann Morgan

■ IN RESPONSE to Mr Hill. I did indeed get a life, Tony - after I left the town council!

And as for concentrating my energies on East Devon District Council and its treatment of Seaton (and other places in East Devon) I think you will find if you read the local press that I have had a very high profile there of late.

Sandra Semple

■ IF I say 'HMS Collingwood', many of your readers will show an interest. Commissioned in January 1940 when things were getting tough in World War II, Hitler was to have claimed to have sunk it four times over the next few years.

However HMS Collingwood is a massive Shore Training Establishment, and still going strong. Many of your readers are amongst the thousands of people who served there at some time or other.

There is now an association standing by to reunite them with their old shipmates, as hundreds of others have found out. Newsletters, reunions, visits, membership lists. Start the ball rolling by contacting Mike Crowe, 7 Heath Road, Sandown. PO36 8PG or mike.crowe1@btinternet.com

YOUR LETTER COULD WIN £10 VOUCHER

to spend at Archway Bookshop, Axminster

Community centre debate rolls on

■ I WAS deeply concerned that Honiton Town Council, and especially one councillor, derided the use of a town poll to assess public opinion.

The clear vote twice over was against the Dowel Street location for the Community Complex.

My disappointment that the town council would not seek to even discuss locating the complex on the Cattle Market site with the Honiton Academy, East Devon District Council and Honiton Development Trust shows a staggering lack of interest in helping the academy and its young people who supported the idea of the community complex.

As it is the town council has voted to spend over £2million of taxpayer's money while refusing to respond to Mr Payne's question - "who pays if the plans don't work out".

That is truly a question to be answered by Lyn Hargood, the Responsible Financial Officer, who failed in her duty to clarify the issue, but I hope by now she has corrected her lack of response.

A sign of the times?

A LOCAL councillor "suggested" that Devon County Council should remove the small signs, indicating opposition to the development of an unnecessary quarry at Straitgate in Ottery St Mary.

Apparently, he thought that these were a potential distraction to motorists and they were duly removed.

I am puzzled because signs, including larger ones advertising the Devon County Show and others promoting craft fairs and plant sales, remained in place and are still at the side of roads in our area.

However, if the councillor is genuinely concerned about road safety, I look forward to his opposing the movement of an extra 100 heavy truck movements, each day, on the busy and inadequate B3180, if the ludicrous plan to develop the quarry is approved.

The church will be open for viewing from 10am to 5pm daily. Cream teas will be served on Saturday and Sunday from 3pm to 5pm, with a cake stall on the Saturday and a raffle on the Sunday.

The festival will culminate in a Songs of Praise service in the church on Sunday at 6pm.

Low Level Laser Therapy (LLLT)

Anti-inflammatory (reduced prostaglandin E2, interleukin 1 and TNF alpha)

Analgesic (Nerve block, long term altered nociception, reduced central sensitisation)

Promotes repair (increased ATP, reduced oxidative stress, increased cell metabolism)

LLLT (Low Level Laser Therapy) is the application of red and near infrared light over injuries or lesions to improve wound and soft tissue healing, reduce inflammation and give instant relief for both acute and chronic pain.

The effects of LLLT are photochemical (like photosynthesis in plants). When the correct intensity and treatment times are used, red and near infrared light reduces oxidative stress and increases ATP. This improves cell metabolism and reduces inflammation.

LLLT is popularly used for soft tissue injuries, joint conditions such as osteo and rheumatoid arthritis, neuropathic pain, non-healing leg pressure and diabetic ulcers.

As well as tissue repair and pain relief, LLLT is used in sport as a performance enhancing aid. Increasing ATP and reducing oxidative stress gives the athlete an increase in endurance, allowing them to train longer with little or no effect from DOMs and an increased time on muscle repair.

Seaton Tramway

Put Dad in the driving seat at Seaton Tramway

IF you're looking for something a bit different this Father's Day then look no further than Seaton Tramway in Devon. Why don't you put Dad in the driving seat of one of Seaton's fleet of beautifully restored electric trams? He can have a go at driving the tram along a mile of track and find out more about the trams at Seaton Tramway.

All Dads travel free on Father's Day at Seaton Tramway but to make the day extra special, book your Dad, Granddad or favourite Uncle a Tram Driving Experience. They can take up to three family members or friends in a mode of transport from a by-gone era, making a round trip along the beautiful Axe estuary from Colyton Station to Colyford Station. Those having a go will receive a full briefing and instructions from the experienced instructor who will accompany you on your trip, all for just £20.00 per person.

The experience lasts for 20 minutes and every Dad who takes up the driving challenge will receive a certificate as a memento. Guest passengers who wish to join in with the Tram Driving Experience and do not have a valid Seaton Tramway return ticket for that day will need to purchase a Driver's Eye guest ticket for £5.00.

Booking in advance is essential. Tickets can be booked online at www.tram.co.uk or via the ticket office, 01297 20375.

Return tickets between Seaton and Colyton are £9 for adults, £8.30 for seniors and students, and £4.50 for children. Or why not upgrade to travel all day for just £1 extra? That will give you more of a chance to try the different trams which come in many colours, shapes and sizes and to look out for some of the amazing wildlife en route, there are more than 100 species of birds, animals and insects including deer, otter, kingfisher, rare breed cattle and dragonfly who make the estuary their home.

Devon artist demonstrates loose watercolour flowers

DEVON artist Siân Dudley painted loose but glowing flowers in watercolour for Axminster Art Society's Wednesday demonstration.

She stresses the importance of becoming familiar with your subject by using sketches and photographs.

She recommended using a digital camera in the black and white mode to view tonal differences in the subject.

Painting from life adds a vibrancy but she urged us not to follow the subject slavishly and use colours we like.

Siân stressed that clean water must be used at all times to avoid muddying the colours. Using paper on a board she prefers to work flat or slightly tilted.

Siân quickly produced a soft underpainting applying water with a large brush in the directions she wanted, not being afraid to leave white dry patches, and then dropping in her colours.

The paint was directed by tilting the board and a few light brush strokes. She was already aware of the direction of the light, the tonal values she wanted to achieve and the complementary and contrasting colours she wanted to use.

Once dry she built up the picture using "wet in wet" and "wet on dry" techniques, often dropping in the paint and allowing it to spread to give an edge to the flowers.

Any unwanted hard lines were softened by rolling over them with a damp brush.

Sword brushes were used to paint in leaves and petals. Size four and two round brushes also gave definition.

A tip for painting in the stems was to apply a thin broken line of water on dry areas and then dropping in the paint at the top and letting it spread down – helped with a little tilting of the board if necessary.

Vibrancy was achieved by building on the colours and using contrasting colours. T ips were given on using paper doilies to mask in lace curtains or dappled shadows. Water soluble pencils were used to draw in lines that could be bled out with water. An informative and interesting talk to inspire us all.

The next demonstration is after the summer break on Wednesday, September 19th when Lynda White will be Exploring Pastels – Oil, Wax and Soft.

All the club's activities can be seen on the Axminster Art Society website and members will be pleased to see you in their marquee at the Axe Vale Festival of Gardening and Crafts June 23rd and 24th.

Club hears of South West link to rest of UK with Stratford-on-Avon and Midland Junction Railway

IN May Thorncombe Rail Activities Club was visited by Andy Thompson, who introduced us to the Stratford-on-Avon and Midland Junction Railway.

The SMJ ran east-west through the midlands, growing piecemeal from the 1860s by the amalgamation and development of several smaller railway companies.

It eventually linked the West of England and Bristol – Birmingham lines to the west of Stratford-on-Avon with the Midland Railway line running north out of London at a point near Olney in Bedfordshire. East of Stratford-on-Avon, the line cut to the north of Banbury and south of Northampton, with branches to Banbury and Blisworth.

Built originally to carry Northamptonshire ironstone to the ironworks in South Wales, it saw quite heavy freight traffic but as it passed through nowhere of any significance, other than the eponymous Stratford, there is little wonder that passenger services were poor and short-lived.

One notable feature for a short time in the 1930s was a service with the prototype Ro-Railer, a bus also fitted with railway wheels.

This ran on the tracks from Blisworth to Stratford where it converted itself to a road vehicle and continued a few miles to a country hotel owned by the railway company.

Passing to the LMSR at the grouping in 1923, most of the line didn't survive long enough to be part of the Beeching cuts, though one small stretch still survives from the main line at Fenny Compton to an MOD depot at Kineton.

The club's next meeting will be on Wednesday, June 20th at 7.30 p.m. in Thorncombe Village Hall, when Andrew Pennington – head of train planning for First Great Western – will talk about his work on today's railway. Everyone is welcome, with a small charge for non-members.

For details contact Richard Holt, chairman, on 01460 30428.

Garden talk in rain

PIPPA Greenwood came to Uplyme, hosted by the Uplyme and Lyme Regis Horticultural Society.

Despite some really dingy weather and the possibly alarming prospect of hearing her talk on Something Nasty in the Garden she attracted a large and enthusiastic audience eager for tips on how to defend their plants against the opposing forces of nature (and gardener's ignorance!).

Pippa's warm, reassuring personality ensured that the evening was extremely informative and enjoyable.

It was easy to see why she has made herself such a successful career both at Wisley and the BBC, and she was generous in the time taken to answer many questions after her talk.

As we sipped warm spicy fruit punch at the end of the evening we all felt the event had been a great success.

Busy May meet

THE May annual meeting was well attended with Ann Bowden, an advisor, present.

Meg gave the treasurer's report, which is in a healthy position.

No election will take place until May 2013. In the absence of Rosemary, Heather read the correspondence.

Members discussed the resolution which will go forward to the NFWI annual meeting in London.

Employment of more midwives were unanimously voted for.

Several members attended Broadhembury WI open day seeing a lovely display of crafts and demonstrations followed by a delicious tea.

Names were taken for the monthly lunch at The White House and the garden meeting to Wells.

The competition for most attractive wine glass was won by Heather, with Olive in second place and Viv Yates third. The raffle was won by Diane Eden and Sue Smith. Flower of the month went to Irene with a lovely Clematis, namely Josephine.

The meeting's tea hostesses were Jill Goodes, Chrissie Jackson, Jill Leonard and Maureen Pevy.

The evening ended with bingo called by Julie Reece.

Event raises £300

THE Royal British Legion (Axminster Women's Section) raised more than £300 at a coffee morning for ongoing work within Devon County Council to provide financial, social and emotional support to those who have served and are currently serving in the armed forces, as well as their dependents.

The event was organised by Michael Steer.

An additional sum of £300 was raised by Jane Bastion through a sponsored swim.

The club's thanks went to all those who supported both events and to Michael and Jane.

Baby course for new mums

A GROUP of mothers and their babies have completed a seven-week course at Axminster Hospital.

Formally named Here's Looking at Your Baby, the course was run by The Children's Society and its Axe Valley Children's Centre.

It gave the mothers an insight into what their baby sees, thinks, feels and needs.

One of the participating mothers, Victoria White, said: "It is a really nice group to attend, with friendly staff who help with your child to better their development."

"It's fantastic information for first time mums given in a very relaxed atmosphere."

The final session was held on Wednesday May 30th, but a new course is planned for the Axe Valley area soon. More information is available on 01297 20542.

Staying calm –we're British!

ORGANISERS of Axminster's Jubilee Street Party on Tuesday had to activate Plan B because of rain.

In addition to the rain, organisers and revellers also had to contend with power cuts in one of the emergency venues, Thomas Whitty House.

But it didn't stop Jill Vanderwolfe, a leading member of the town's official jubilee programme committee, from saying: "It was a brilliant day."

She spent much time on the Thomas Whitty House door, meeting and greeting revellers, and she looked somewhat worried early on.

Word on the street was that the decision to move the party indoors had been taken at least a day in advance.

But Mrs Vanderwolfe said the definite decision had not been made until 9am on Tuesday - only three hours before the event kicked off.

Plan B featured four alternative venues - The Minster, The Church Rooms, Thomas Whitty House and the upstairs area of Axminster Conservative Club.

Most of the entertainment was moved to the The Minster and those who had booked tables were spread across the three other venues.

The mini-Olympics, scheduled to take place on Minster Green, had to be cancelled, though.

Speaking to Pulman's View only half-an-hour into the event, Mrs Vanderwolfe said: "We are making the most of it and we are going to have a great today."

A sentiment echoed by town crier Nick Goodwin, who told revellers in Thomas Whitty House: "Stay calm and carry on. It is a celebration and we are British."

The Rotary Club of Axminster played a big part in party preparations, and member Martin King praised everyone involved who worked flat out in the morning to get the alternative venues ready.

He said: "It was all hands to the pumps."

The day after the street party, Mrs Vanderwolfe said there had been several power cuts in Thomas Whitty House.

But it had been a case of stay calm and carry on, and she added: "The atmosphere was fantastic and everyone mucked in."

"We even had one person asking when the next street party is."

When asked if she had an answer to that question, she said: "Not really, we need a rest first."

Axminster police said jubilee celebrations had passed without incident.

PCSO Andy Trott said: "It went very peacefully, everyone behaved very well."

The spirit came shining through

OF all the comments I have heard over the Jubilee period, the one that tickled me the most came from Axminster Town Crier Nick Goodwin.

Nick takes his town crying duties very serious and is mighty proud to hold the ancient position.

With the rain teeming down and when asked what was going to happen on Jubilee Tuesday, the day Axminster was going to hold its much anticipated street parties, Nick matter-of-factly replied: "Stay calm. We're British!"

Nick, of course, is one of those persons whose glass is always half full, not half empty.

Just what you need when all around seems to be going astray.

Not that things were going astray in Axminster on the Big Day. It just happened to be raining – so Plan B was swiftly put into action. That meant switching the street party planned for Trinity Square and Silver Street into four pre-arranged indoor venues – The Minster Church, The Church Room, upstairs in the Conservative Club and Thomas Whitty House which will soon become Axminster Heritage Centre.

And whilst it was a shame that the street parties could not be held in the great British outdoors, moving them inside did not affect their spirit of the occasion one iota.

The sun may not have been shining through, but the community spirit of Axminster certainly was.

It involved everyone pulling together at the last moment, but tables and chairs were moved, flags were erected, and by the time the people of Axminster

EDITOR AT LARGE

ster arrived to celebrate the Queen's 60-year reign, the plans were in place for the best and biggest street party Axminster had ever seen.

And as for the town crier, well he threw himself wholeheartedly into making sure everyone had a good time, even leading spontaneous Jubilee dancing and succeeding in getting Lord of the Manor Jim Rowe on the floor.

These scenes were reported all over East Devon as the great British weather conspired to ruin the last day of the Jubilee celebrations.

Some activities had to be curtailed, but overall the towns and villages of East Devon did Her Majesty proud. Well done to all those who worked so hard in Pulman's Country to make it a weekend to remember.

So what's next? I met doyen councillor Douglas Hull, soon to complete 50 years in local government, and he told me not to forget September 2015.

I thought he was referring to his 90th birthday (sorry Douglas!) but he went on to explain that is when the Queen will celebrate being the longest serving British monarch of all time!

Stay calm – we've still got three years to plan it!

Squeaky bottom time in the big tent!

I WAS delighted to be invited to the gathering of past and present footballers who had played on Sector Lane in Axminster to celebrate all the great times we have enjoyed over the years on what I described "the Wembley of local football".

I was also privileged to have been asked to act as master of ceremonies for the evening, as I did at the Tigers' centenary dinner ten years ago.

Well, that's what I thought I was doing. When I arrived I was greeted by Mayor Andrew Moulding who informed me I was down on the itinerary for the night as the main speaker to give "a potted history of Axminster Town".

Needless to say I had not prepared anything so in the words of Alex Ferguson, it was "squeaky bottom time".

I managed to cobble together a few facts and some old jokes and a good time was had by all. Again, the weather wasn't over kind and at one time I thought the marquee was about to blow away. But it was a very enjoyable evening.

There were loads of ex-players present, some going back to when I played for the Tigers in the late 1960s. My sports editor, Howard Larcombe, later observed on Twitter that he had just seen Axminster's Mike Lord – and he looked just as scary!

■ MAKING NEWS: Retired photographer Colin Bowerman (centre) pictured with Ted Gosling and Mike Clement at the launch of their latest book on Saturday

New book for the Jubilee

I'VE been intending for some time to write something about recently retired local photographer Colin Bowerman who served Pulman's Weekly News so well over a period of nearly 20 years.

The ideal opportunity arose on Saturday morning when I accepted an invitation from Ted Gosling to attend the launch of his latest book at Axmouth.

Ted, Freeman of Seaton and the driving force for many years behind the town's museum, is one of the most prolific authors of local books. His latest – "Seaton and Axmouth – Within Living Memory" – has been written in conjunction with Axmouth resident Mike Clement, who has a great interest in local history, and has been dedicated to Colin, who has provided many of the photos.

Colin recently packed his camera away after more than 40 years as a press photographer, training on the Maidenhead Advertiser and then working in Fleet Street before moving to Colyton in 1983 and joining the staff of Pulman's.

In latter years he became a freelance but was still the public face of Pulman's, bombing around East Devon, covering various engagements in the jovial fashion which became his hallmark.

His wife Di, a reporter on the Sidmouth Herald, has also retired and they are now able to spend much more time with their family looking after the grandchildren.

Their contribution to the community life of East Devon over so many years will not be forgotten.

Ted and Mike's latest book is another wonderful collection of photographs from around the area, some of which have not been published before.

It has been brought out to coincide with the Queen's Diamond Jubilee and contains a photo of Queen Victoria's Diamond celebrations in Seaton in 1897.

◆ Copies of the book can be bought for £12.99 from Seaton Museum.

Buzzard debate

THE hysteria which greeted the announcement by Defra that it was proposing to instigate a study into non-lethal means of buzzard control, in the light of damage to pheasant poult stocks on game shoots, was entirely predictable and, within a few days, such was the outcry, notably from the RSPB who announced that they were "stunned" by the news, that this dysfunctional Government department hastily backtracked to announce that they were scrapping their plans.

In fact, the shooting world, on the whole greeted the announcement of the buzzard control study with muted enthusiasm, being well aware that there would be an inevitable backlash from conservation and "birdy" societies.

The actual proposals were simply to catch and remove buzzards which were proving a nuisance to other areas and to destroy nests. However, this was seen as the thin edge of the proverbial wedge and, we were assured by some of the more extreme elements, puce in the face with anger, would lead to wholesale destruction of all raptors. Furthermore, it was pointed out, pheasants are not native to this country, having only been with us since Roman times!

Indeed, all raptors have now been placed on a pedestal and, under no circumstances dare one even suggest that some control over, say, sparrowhawks, might not be a bad thing and go some way towards achieving a balance.

Even criticism of grey squirrels, magpies and crows will have the tweeters madly tweeting in their defence. They might, however, take note of the experience of a farmer from near Cullumpton, Geoffrey Persey, who writes in Farmers Weekly to point out that his policy has been to promote wild bird populations alongside farming operations and, having listened to the RSPB, to completely abandon predator control.

However, he is, he writes, now polluted with badgers, buzzards, corvids, feral cats and grey squirrels, while all his conservation strips have become feeding points for these predators. Three years ago he decided to reduce the crow population and caught 104 in traps in six weeks. This on a small Devon farm! Forget all the grants, special surveys, etc and concentrate on the real problem . . . predators, says Mr Persey. Worth reminding him perhaps that the RSPB controls corvids on its own reserves!

Local to me, Bill Short, who farms near Axminster, is of the same ilk and writes to tell me that years ago men who worked the land and understood nature, helped to keep the balance between wildlife and farming. Trying to look after garden and farmland birds is now an uphill task, writes Bill, "Back in the 1940s, as schoolboys, we used to go around the fields and woods looking out for magpie and crow nests but now children just look at computers, even in schools".

This is, of course, a contentious subject and there will never be a universal approach to predator control, but I am well away that many of my readers have steadfast views on the subject!

Now, how about a weekend of wildlife in a West Dorset village? Organised by the residents of Netherbury and the Dorset Wildlife Trust, this weekend (June 16th/17th) will be devoted to observing and learning about aspects of wildlife ranging from bees, bats, butterflies to birds.

The weekend starts on the Saturday with a 6am walk, followed by breakfast and an official opening in the village hall at 9am. Wildlife experts will be on hand to field questions, there'll be guided walks, moth trapping, bug hunts, bird watching and, in the evening, an illustrated lecture by wildlife photographer Colin Varndell.

On the Sunday events will take place from 10:30am to noon. Book for guided walks by calling Susy Varndell on 01308 488341. All events are free.

Jubilee fun at Scallywags

■ SCALLYWAGS Pre-School in Feniton held its annual sponsored toddle on Friday, May 25th with a Diamond Jubilee theme, writes LUCIE SIMIC.

Children dressed up as kings, queens and princesses to do more than ten laps of the sports field in very sunny conditions.

After the event children and family members were invited back to enjoy refreshments before every child was presented with a special commemorative Diamond Jubilee spoon.

Sharron Palfrey, Scallywags Pre-school leader, said: "We had a fantastic time! The children did so well in the extremely warm conditions.

"We felt that this year we should celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee and so instead of the usual medals to commemorate the achievement the pre-school committee decided on something special for the children to keep and mark the event."

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

THE Reverend John Streeting, Rector at Axminster, writes: The month of June began in a mood of real celebration as we commemorated the Diamond Jubilee. It is a phenomenal achievement, and I would suggest that even the most ardent anti-royalist would not deny the dignity, integrity and energy with which the Queen has exercised her role over all these past 60 years, which in my case, born as I was in 1952, represents the whole of my life!

It should also be said that the Duke of Edinburgh, now 91-years-old, has been the most amazing consort throughout all those years, and continues to perform his role with a vitality that would be beyond many a man 20 years his junior.

The Queen is the patron of the Church of England and as such we will be celebrating this event in a variety of ways throughout our Mission Community over the coming days.

Sadly most of these occasions will have taken place by the time you read this, but I do hope that many of you will have had the opportunity to attend one of the services that have been advertised in our area to celebrate this very special anniversary.

In particular, we had a service in the Minster last Sunday afternoon at which all the churches of Axminster were represented. I trust that those of you who live in the town took the opportunity to join in the street party to further celebrate the great event on June 5th, despite the many other celebrations in our area. So I conclude with those familiar words 'God save the Queen'.

Despite celebrations, life goes on, and last week we learnt that the Church of England House of Bishops have made minor amendments to the proposed legislation, which will allow Women Bishops, by recording the distinction between "permission to ordain" and "power to ordain" and another minor change which seeks to reassure traditionalists.

These changes are a signal that the bishops wish to respect the views of both sides of the argument. However this late change does not suit everyone and there is opposition to it in the General Synod which could now delay the consecration of the first woman bishop.

● Churches of Honiton Deanery meet in their Synod on June 13th at Chardstock School. Dr Tim Gibson will speak on Exploring Christianity from 7:30pm.

WHEN the Axminster & District Choral Society planned their contribution to the town's Jubilee celebrations, they cannot have imagined the response it would receive. The Minster church was packed with a capacity audience and many more would have come had there been space.

Those who were there were not disappointed as the choir, led by their Director Judy Martin - along with members of the Exeter-based Salamanca Band of the Rifles and soprano soloist Mary Morgan - presented a programme of music with royal associations.

The glorious anthem by Parry - 'I Was Glad' - (written for Edward VII's coronation in 1902) opened the concert and thundered around the church as the choir, band and organ (played by Peter Parshall) joined forces. Along with Handel's 'Zadok the Priest' (not on the night's programme), this is perhaps the best-known of Coronation Anthems and the musicians gave it their all.

Other lesser-known works included Handel's 'The King Shall Rejoice' (written for the coronation of George II and Queen Caroline in 1727) ending with a stirring Alleluia chorus; William McKie's 'We wait for thy loving kindness' written for the wedding of the present Queen and Prince Philip in 1947 and George Dyson's 'Comfortare' for the Queen's coronation in 1953. These were contrasted with pieces performed at funerals - a Purcell March (Queen Mary II in 1695) and Brahms's 'How lovely is thy dwelling place' from his German Requiem (Queen Elizabeth, the Queen Mother, in 2002).

But it was a more modern work at which the choir particularly excelled: William Mathias's 'Let the People Praise Thee, O God' commissioned for the wedding of Prince Charles and Lady Diana Spencer. This is not an easy work to bring off but the choir rose to the challenge magnificently.

Mary Morgan's contributions of an aria from Purcell's opera King Arthur and Handel's 'Let the Bright Seraphim' (also sung at Charles' and Diana's wedding) were crowned by a rendition of 'Rule, Britannia!' splendidly clad as Britannia herself, a song in which the whole audience enthusiastically joined in!

There were other opportunities for the audience to sing - in Parry's 'Jerusalem' and in 'All

People That On Earth Do Dwell' in Vaughan Williams' uplifting arrangement for the 1953 Coronation - and, of course, in the National Anthem in Thomas Arne's arrangement.

The musicians of the Salamanca Band made their mark on the evening, especially in the famous Trumpet Voluntary which was most recently performed at the wedding of Prince William and Kate Middleton.

The anthems were interspersed between readings by dignitaries who made personal tributes to Her Majesty. Those making readings included Lt. Colonel Anthony Drake, Deputy Lieutenant for Devon, representing the Lord Lieutenant, Neil Parish, M.P. Councillor Andrew Moulding, Mayor of Axminster, and Alan Rowe MBE on behalf of The Baton. Mrs Peggy Hannam, a member of the Choral Society read a delightful excerpt from the Golden Jubilee Children's Poetry Competition, "Inviting the Queen to Tea on the Moon."

Captain Howard Chaganis, Adjutant 6 Rifles, on behalf of the Salamanca Band of The Rifles and the charities, thanked the distinguished readers, the Choir and the audience for their tremendous support which has raised around £5,000.

The costs of the evening were borne by choir members themselves so that the proceeds could be given to two causes - The Rifles Charity and Care for Casualties Appeal and Honiton-based The Baton. It is to the credit of the Choral Society (who do not usually have a summer concert) and their Director that they took advantage of the current celebrations to present a mix of old favourites and introduce the audience to less familiar works. All were ably presented with great energy and everyone concerned deserves right royal congratulations!

Various comments from members of the audience, "Music fit for a Queen" "was a triumph - the choice of music was inspirational, beautifully presented and performed in a wonderful setting".

"The Salamanca Band of The Rifles just added to the performance."

"Congratulations to all involved on Saturday. An inspired programme - loved the mix of long and short pieces interspersed with readings. Everyone looked to be enjoying the evening, and what volume from the choir - all in all an inspiring performance".

"The choir appears to be going from strength to strength under the baton of their new music director, - can't wait for the Christmas programme!"

THE PUPPET MASTER | Jason Byrne heads to Plymouth in November

Internationally acclaimed cellist returns to Uplyme

LIONEL Handy, the internationally acclaimed cellist is returning to Uplyme Church with his accompanist David Clayton for a concert tonight (Tuesday, June 12th) at 7.30pm.

Lionel is one of the outstanding cellists of his generation. As a scholarship student at the Royal Academy of Music, Lionel Handy won all the prizes for cello and chamber music. Later he became a professor at the Royal Academy of Music, and taught at the Birmingham Conservatoire in addition to summer schools in Europe.

Lionel was principal cello with the Academy of St. Martin-in-the-Fields for ten years with whom he recorded extensively and toured in the United States and Europe. Later he was solo cellist with the Bournemouth Sinfonietta. He has broadcast frequently for BBC Radio Three and European networks and has made numerous commercial recordings. He has given solo recitals at the Wigmore Hall.

In 2007 he suffered an horrific accident whilst on tour in Germany which could have ended his life. Thanks to outstanding medical care in Germany and Southampton he made a miraculous recovery. His come back concert was in Uplyme in February 2008. Since then he has rebuilt his career. Lionel Handy launched a series of concerts to promote new works for the cello, and also to celebrate his own physical recovery from the accident. His recent recording for the Cadenza music label has received both national and international critical acclaim. In 2010 he was made a Fellow of the Royal Academy of Music, an honor given to only to the most distinguished academy musicians.

The Uplyme concert will feature the music of Beethoven, Bax and Schubert. This will be another memorable evening of superb cello music; a unique opportunity to hear one of the foremost cellists in an intimate church setting. Admission will cost £8 payable on the door. Children and college students come free.

He is now back in the studio recording a brand new album and is back on the road at many of the countries Top Festivals.

Cole has performed sell-out concerts in the area in the last few years and has recently had the backing of 'Show of Hands' legend Steve Knightly who describes Cole as "An Impassioned & Ambitious Young Songwriter".

Cole speaks glowingly about his delight at coming and playing at this unique concert, describing it as "A privilege to perform at such a wonderful event organised by Sue King for a cause close to all our hearts, its truly humbling to try and help in raising some money by playing music."

Cole will play the charity concert at the Blue Ball, Sidmouth on Sunday, June 17th. For more information visit www.colestacey.net or contact Sue on 07854 822809.

From the bayou of Louisiana to the swamps of Axmouth!

IT WAS in 1992 when Lisa Trahan and Bobby Michot first played together with the Cajun Voyageurs at the Melting Music Festival in Romans, France. Having toured with traditional Cajun music since 1982, Bobby was on a long tour with the original Cajun Voyageurs including the late Chonk Cormier and Mike Tate, along with his brother David. Good hometown friend Lisa Trahan was in France on holiday with her aunt and so was invited to play with the band.

Since that time the two musicians paths have taken many different turns in the Cajun music world branching out to accordions, fiddles, guitars, harmonicas, and other instruments of their home music from south Louisiana. Bobby has toured in the UK with Eddie LeJeune and Ken Smith, Sacaulait, Morris and Dexter Ardoin, Savoy Michot Band, and others. Lisa has toured with the

Magnolia Sisters and the Trahan Reed Band. In the last few years they have found themselves performing together again with l'Esprit Cajun and other acts. Also Bobby's wife, Beatrice has been accompanying him on guitar in recent years.

They guarantee to give that two stepping, waltzing, sand toe tapping sound howled in the age old French dialect of their forebearers, unique to the Cajuns and Creoles of their homeland. Sprinkled with some blues, country, and zarico which identifies the spiciness of this music like the cuisine of South Louisiana. So come on down to this unique appearance in this area at The Ship in Axmouth on Tuesday, June 19th.

Ford growth outpaces UK market

UK MARKET leader Ford benefitted from a surge in commercial vehicle (CV) sales in May to ensure that Ford's total vehicle sales and share were up for both the month and for the year to date, compared with 2011.

Ford car sales were up 7.0 per cent in May, compared with May 2011, while the car market as a whole was up 7.9 per cent, according to the official figures released today from the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders (SMMT):

- Ford car sales and share up in May and for the year to date
- Ford Fiesta is the UK best seller for the year to date
- Ford commercial vehicle sales and share up in May
- Ford Transit accounts for more than one-in-five sales in the total CV market

The official figures released by the SMMT show that total car sales in May were up 7.9 per cent to 162,288 units, compared with May 2011. Ford car sales of 23,083 were up 7.0 per cent, from 21,581 in May 2011. For the year to date (end May) total UK car sales were 868,166 up 2.6 per cent compared with 2012, while Ford car sales for this period in 2012 were 126,215 up 5.2 per cent compared with 2011.

Ford's strong performance in car sales through 2012 is underlined by the Ford Fiesta's clear No 1 position in the UK market for the year to date. Ford Fiesta sales for the year to date have increased from 42,814 to 50,507, compared with the same period in 2011.

Ford's large car range made significant gains in May, securing sales and share increases compared with May 2011. Ford Mondeo, Ford S-MAX and Ford Galaxy sales of 2,105, 1,166 and 1,040, respectively, were up from 1,356, 675 and 669 in May 2011.

After slow sales from January through April, the UK light commercial vehicle and medium commercial vehicle segments picked up significantly in May with sales up 11.0 per cent, compared with May 2011. Ford's combined sales in these segments were up 32.3 per cent in May, increasing to 7,178 from 5,425 in May 2011.

Ford medium commercials, headed by the industry-leading Ford Transit, accounted for 31.3 per cent of sales in that segment for the year to date, up from 28.2 per cent in 2011. Ford Transit's position as the UK's best-selling commercial vehicle remains unchanged: Transit sales were up in May, increasing from 4,426 to 5,880, compared with May 2011.

Mark Ovenden, Ford of Britain managing director, said: "The strong sales momentum Ford's car range through 2012 is now being matched by our commercial vehicles, with the notable recovery in that sector in May.

"The combination of our best-ever product range of vehicles and an unmatched UK dealer network positions Ford as the clear market leader. With the new 1.0-litre EcoBoost engine in Focus proving a big hit and taking 25 per cent of Focus orders, we are looking forward to even more exciting new product news this year with the launches of the Focus ST, the new Ford B-MAX, and the new Ford Transit."

Kia hits new May sales record

- 5,176 new cars sold in the month
- 33 per cent increase compared to May 2011
- Year-to-date sales up by 24 per cent versus 2011
- Market share tops three per cent for month and year to date
- Globally Kia increases sales by 15 per cent year on year

KIA keeps on hitting new records as its stylish, quality range of vehicles keeps on attracting new customers to the brand. In May Kia Motors (UK) Limited hit a new record of 5,176 sales in the month – a market share of 3.19 per cent – taking sales for the year to date to 27,507 and a market share of 3.17 per cent.

At a global level Kia saw a 15 per cent growth year on year with total sales for the month up to 240,000 and total sales so far in 2012 reaching 1,106,041 units.

This continued sales success comes as Kia replaces its all-European cee'd model – the new car went on UK sale on June 1 and the May record was reached despite the previous version of the five-door hatchback being in run-out.

Kia UK's May sales were up more than 33 per cent compared to last year's month total of 3,873 and up by almost 24 per cent in year-to-date terms from 22,184 at the end of May 2011.

Kia's global sales for the year were up by almost 12 per cent compared to 2011 thanks to sales increases in all major regions including the domestic Korean market – up by seven per cent, Europe – by 28 per cent, China – by 21 per cent and North America by nine per cent.

Michael Cole, Managing Director of Kia Motors (UK) Limited said: "To post a new record May as we were getting ready to replace cee'd with the all-new model was particularly pleasing and it shows that our dealers are continuing to pull lots of new customers into the brand.

"I am very hopeful that with the launch of the new cee'd this performance will continue so that we can reach our sales goal for this year of up to 65,000 vehicles," he added.

Good Foundations

TO all my passed pupils, (quite a few I think!) I would like to thank you all for the pleasure in being able to teach you all to drive, and I am sure you will agree that my teaching standards were very high, (and still are!).

As a matter of interest I often wonder how many of you have gone on to improve your driving skills, I know a few of you have gone on to become top drivers in your given careers, such as Police drivers, one I know of became a Police

Driving Instructor, Ambulance drivers, Bus and Heavy goods drivers, and one of my passed pupils now drives a tank for the British Army, a far cry from my little 1.5D Renault Clio!

For those of you that have not been driving long, I wish you all the best. And to keep trying to improve your driving skills, and maybe reduce your insurance premiums by thinking about more advance driving courses. Pass plus is always a good way to start, you can also save fuel cost by improving your Eco driving skills.

PLEASE FEEL FREE TO CONTACT ME, I would love to hear from you (email is best). Thank you all again, best wishes and happy safe motoring!

Fiat 500 hits the 100,000 UK sales mark

FURTHER proof of the Fiat 500 city car's outstanding success in the UK was revealed today with the news that the 100,000th example was sold here last month – just four and a half years since its launch.

The passing of this significant milestone demonstrates beyond doubt that the Fiat 500 is still high on customer shortlists when it comes to choosing a new supermini. It follows on from April's official UK sales figures in which the 500 was placed inside the top 10 best sellers with 2,600 vehicles sold.

The figure breakdown reveals that:

- 80 per cent of all 500 sales have been 1.2-litre petrol engine versions;
- Eight per cent of sales are of the new 0.9-litre two cylinder TwinAir version which was not introduced until 2010;
- 48 per cent of cars purchased are in the top-of-the-range Lounge trim;

The most popular colour choices are Bossanova white, Pasodoble red, Volare light blue and the metallic Crossover black.

The Fiat 500 was International Car of the Year in 2008, and has won a host of other awards, including Fleet World Honours Best City Car (2011); Business-Car Awards City Car of the Year (2011); What Car? Green Awards Supermini (2010); GreenFleet Awards City Car of the Year (2009); Auto Express Best City Car (2008); and Auto 1 Awards Small and Compact Vehicle (2008).

The popular three door hatchback has been released over the years in a number of limited edition versions such as 500 Pink, 500 Matt Black, 500byGucci, and 500by-Diesel.

"We were always confident that the 100,000 landmark would come," says Elena Bernardelli, marketing director, Fiat Group Automobiles UK Ltd. "It's a wonderful achievement and I am sure that we will see many more sales successes in the years to come."

Available with a choice of ultra-low emissions Euro 5 engines: 85bhp 0.9-litre TwinAir, 69 bhp 1.2-litre and 95 bhp 1.3-litre Multi-Jet turbodiesel, the Fiat 500 has a starting price of just £9,960 OTR for the 1.2 Pop, representing outstanding value for money.

REPORTS

AXMINSTER 1st XI 86 LOST TO LEWDOWN 256-5 ALL OUT
AXMINSTER 1st XI travelled to Lewdown on Saturday. Captain Paul Miller won the toss again and asked Lewdown to bat.

Young Dan Fuzzard opened the bowling and showed a lot of composure with the new ball, swinging it both directions. He quickly dismissed one of the opening batsmen, bowled around his legs, and finished his first six overs with 1-18. But after rain set in, finished with 2-68 from 12.

Meanwhile, Alex Wraight recorded his 100th wicket for the first team in just a little over three seasons. Lewdown's much-hyped Somerset 2nd XI South African all-rounder Rob Mutch came to the crease and quickly plundered 47 in only 19 deliveries and Dave Ball scored 76 after been dropped first ball as Lewdown declared on 256-5.

Axminster's reply was a mere 86 all out. Tristan Wakeley top-scored with 29, and the team's newest young recruit, Sam Farrow, scored a fantastic 26 not out.

This is mightily impressive as he faced both opening bowlers, which included Mutch, who had dismissed all but one of Axminster's batters.

Axminsters next match is home to Tavistock.

SEATON 1st XI 163-9 DREW WITH PLYMOUTH CIVIL SERVICE 208 ALL OUT
SEATON 1st XI looked to build on an impressive win against top of the table Yelverton last time out as they hosted Plymouth Civil Service (PCS) on Saturday.

Captain Ben Morgan won the toss for the fifth time this campaign and asked the visitors to bat first.

Seaton started well as Phil Collins took two early wickets but PCS quickly got to 60-2 after 10 overs. Opening the bowling from the other end, Ben Copp had to be replaced by Morgan after being struck on the hip by a ferocious straight drive from the attacking batsman.

PCS carried on scoring relatively quickly until their main man was caught on the boundary by Collins off the bowling of Berry.

Seaton then started to take wickets regularly as Mike Wheeler and the returning Collins kept it tight. The visitors were finally dismissed in the final over for 208 with Collins taking his maiden 5 wicket haul and Morgan and Berry grabbing a brace apiece.

Seaton's reply didn't start too well as opener Ed Hunt was bowled from the first ball he faced. John Waterhouse started to take the attack to the PCS bowling attack but was soon caught on the boundary for 22.

Seaton then collapsed and were 79-7 despite Reid Mawdesley batting superbly for 23. Morgan and Copp put on 83 for the 8th wicket but Copp was bowled for 33 with two overs to go and Collins was bowled in the same over leaving number 11 Joe Berry looking to block out two balls which he did successfully.

Berry stayed with Morgan until the end and Seaton ended up on 163-9 having to settle with a losing draw with Morgan unbeaten on 45.

Morgan said: "After the first 10 overs we bowled really well, they just took the attack to us and it paid off for them. The run chase was poor and we really have to look at ourselves when batting as nearly all the dismissals were from poor decision making."

"We host Honiton this Saturday needing a positive result if we want to stay in the promotion hunt".

HONITON 2ND XI 143 ALL OUT LOST TO CORNWOOD 144-5 BY FIVE WICKETS.
LEADERS Cornwall walked correctly at the toss and opted to bowl first at Mountbatten Park on Saturday.

Difficult batting on the sticky pitch left the home side in a bit of bother 31-3 in the 18th over.

Andy Canniford, who went for a handy 19, and skipper Andrew Lapping 68 (11 fours, one six) then changed things around before Jake Pulman (5 not out) and Richard Hill (8) then set about seeing what could be added to the target, while trying to minimise the number of overs which Cornwall would have available for the chase. Together, they ground out 20 for the last wicket, closing on 143 all out in the 46th over.

The pitch having dried out more than somewhat, Honiton's bowlers were faced with less favourable conditions in which to defend a score which was probably 30 runs short of par. But Jake Pulman, proceeded to blow away the Cornwall top order to leave them struggling on 2-4.

But David Petherbridge (75) carried the visitors through the 100-run mark before Canniford finally made the breakthrough with the score on 104-5.

But, with wickets in hand, Cornwall were able to play some more ambitious shots and reached their target in the final over.

ALL SAINTS 109-6 BEAT NORTH PETHERTON 108 ALLOUT BY FOUR WICKETS.

ALL Saints leap-frogged their opponents yesterday, after a fine bowling display ensured victory at North Petherton.

Mike Nunn won the toss and had no hesitation in bowling first. This proved a good decision, as early swing and bounce troubled the third-placed hosts.

Fine spells of 4-25 from Nunn, 3-17 from Fraser Wallace and 2-2 from James Trott ensured that the hosts were skittled out for just 108.

Wallace was to be the hero with the bat too, as his vital knock of 42 not out, aided by a useful 23 from Trott, carried Saints to a nervy victory, after a steady clatter of wickets.

ON THE SPOT...

Q How long have you been involved in the local cricket scene? Who have you played for?

A I started playing for Kilmingdon when I was 11 starting in the colts set up that they had then and then through to the mens 2nd and 1st XIs. I have also played colts cricket for Axminster and have represented East Devon U15s.

Q Name the three best players you played alongside so far and why.

A Jack Willow – I played a few games in league cricket and on tour with Jack and he's one of those batsmen that seem to have all the time in the world when batting and the patience to hit a big score. Not a bad keeper either. Joel Seward – I've played a lot of cricket with and against Joel over the years, he's got great timing and hits the ball well for a little chap. Ben Noble – Ben's been great since he came to Kilmingdon, he's obviously played a higher standard of cricket and it really shows at our level. He takes a lot of wickets and doesn't go for many. You don't want to drop one off his bowling though!

Q What's the best away ground you played on?

A When we played in the Pulman's league we played at a lot of good grounds. Some that stand out are; North Perrott, Taunton CC, Exmouth and Sidmouth.

Q Do any games stick in your memory?

A In the semi-final of the Whiteway 20 over Cup at Whimple a few years ago against Feniton. We had a minor batting collapse leaving us about 39-5 chasing 110. Our kit bags were all packed and ready to go home until Craig Seward (47 off 25) smashed the ball to all parts and won the game. We went on to beat Whimple in the final as well!

Q How would you improve things at Kilmingdon CC?

A We need to get a colts set up going at Kilmingdon, we haven't had one since I was playing U17s and it shows with the lack of young players at the club.

Q What is your top score/best bowling performance?

A My top score is 154 against Woodbury last year. Best bowling is 5-25 against Clyst Hydon a while ago.

Q Name some young players we should look out for in the future.

A Matt Rockett - he's getting better and better with both bat and ball. When he learns to bowl straight he'll be very good. Jonny Tattershall - if he got his head down he could score a lot of runs. When he gets going he hits the ball hard, and a long way!

NEXT WEEK: Kilmingdon CC's ROLAND STONEX

RUNNING INTO THE RECORD BOOKS

FOR two weeks in June two men from opposite ends of the earth will attempt to run the whole 630 miles of the South West Coast Path, from Minehead in Somerset to Poole in Dorset, in just 14 days.

Previously, nobody has completed this, the UK's longest footpath, in less than 23 days and fit hikers normally take at least 45 days!

Tom Bland and Mal Law have chosen to take up this epic adventure to raise awareness and understanding of mental health issues and support two charities: Mind in the UK and New Zealand's Mental Health Foundation.

What do these two men have in common? Both are passionate trail runners who love the outdoors and prefer striding over summits to pounding the pavements in conventional events such as marathons.

They both thrive on setting themselves challenges: Tom is a former Great Britain triathlon representative; in 2009

Mal became the first person ever to run New Zealand's 7 'Great Walks' in 7 days, a feat that saw him appearing on TV, radio and in the press throughout his homeland.

His plan is to start from Minehead on Sunday (June 17th), cover a daily distance of between 40 and 50 miles each day around the coasts of four counties, finishing with a 66-mile day/night run to South Haven Point on Poole Harbour on July 1st.

The daily distances would be challenging enough, without the added dimension of the ups and downs of the route. The overall altitude gain is the equivalent of climbing Mt Everest from sea level 4 times.

The two, who will meet in person for the first time just before the challenge begins, have been training hard for the last year. Tom, from Axmouth, said: "For me, running the South West Coast Path to raise awareness of mental health issues is a challenge very close to my heart and to my head.

"As a west country boy I have a great love for the south west coast and this run will provide both the physical exertion and the awesome sense of well-being that can only be achieved by pitting oneself against a personal challenge".

Mal, who was born in the UK but now lives in New Zealand, where he has been doing most of his training adds, "I love big, audacious goals and this is without doubt the biggest and hairiest that I have ever set myself... bring it on!"

Funds raised by Tom and Mal will help Mind and the Mental Health Foundation of New Zealand continue their vital work with the 1 in 4 people who experience mental health problems.

You can learn more about the challenge by visiting www.coastpathrun.co.uk from where you can find links to the Facebook and Twitter pages for the challenge.

FENITON Bowls Club with Roger Smith

IN a week where four matches were lost to the weather, the Feniton mens team recorded an excellent 100-55 victory over visiting Sidmouth.

The winning rinks were: F Imms, G Skinner, J Livings & D Evans 29-9, E Cox, E Goodenough, A. Smith & D. Conbeer 31-14 and F Jones, A Hughes, R Clarke & R Smith 25-13.

The mixed team's return to form continued with a good 86-71 win against visiting Bradninch.

The winning rinks were: R Crowe-swords, N Cox, R Clarke & R Cooke 32-12 and S Goodenough, D Sanders, G Blackmore & M Eveleigh 25-15.

SEATON Bowls Club with Linda Stone

BANK holiday Monday, 4th June, was the club's official charity fund raising day. This year we are raising money for the Seaton branch of the Macular Disease Society.

Luckily the weather decided to co-operate and the sun shone for us. We played 16 ends of a four-rink match. The winning rink was: I. Manchester, L. Hurley-Smith, R. Whitworth & J. Miles.

All the proceeds from the day, including money raised from a craft stall and a raffle, amounted to just over £200.

The ladies played an over 50s league match at Pines Gardens in Exeter, winning convincingly by 23-7 and 19-14. Top triple was: M. Johnson, P. Whitworth & S. Rutter.

The rest of the week was a wash out with matches on Thursday against Axminster at home and an away game against Tiverton West End on Friday being rained off.

THE 'Summer' weather has taken its toll this week. The ladies county game was cancelled, several of the Percy Baker league games were abandoned half-way through and a Club friendly on Sunday was also washed out.

This, on a week when all the men's league teams were rested, but had to compete in the second round of the County Cup. The ladies were also involved in their next round of 'Top Cub'.

The men managed to win by a margin of 11 shots against Alexandra Park, winning on three of the four rinks, this will pit them against Wimborne in the next round. The ladies travelled to Poole Park for their Top Cub encounter, being unlucky to be pushed onto two end rinks on two separate greens.

The greens proved to be tricky and Lyme won only one of the four disciplines. The pairing of Jan Parsons and Chris Barber were unlucky to go down on their last end dropping an uncharacteristic four shots.

Anne Allman's fours were the only success story, even more pleasing when you consider the Poole Park rink was skipped by England international Julie Saunders.

Just two friendlies this week:

Farewell to popular golf club steward

ON Friday, May 25th in excellent weather conditions and with the fairways and greens in equally good state, Lyme Regis Golf Club bid a fond farewell to David Astill who has fulfilled the role of club steward for the past seven years writes Steve Percival.

Not only has David supervised the bar and catering provision for members he has also been prominent in the hosting of many of the social events of the club and has also taken charge of the Junior section of the club.

In the latter role the success of many of the juniors has been very much due to his efforts as well as those of the club professional Duncan Driver and his team of volunteer assistants.

The format of the day was a four-ball competition following which David was presented with presents funded through donations from grateful club members as well as honorary country membership awarded by the management committee.

Throughout his tenure as club steward David has been supported by his wife Chris who, despite experiencing ill health for much of the time, has been an excellent support for David and the many club functions for which he has been responsible.

Winners of the golf competition were Mike and Cindy Mudford partnered by Rob Clapp and Des Denning with 90 points closely followed by Tony Johnstone Brendan Cable and Jack Hansford partnered by C Bosence.

LADIES SECTION

THE Ladies of Lyme Regis Golf enjoyed their 36 hole Championship day in perfect playing conditions with Ladies' Vice Captain Gloria Lott, welcoming the Club President, Anne Humphries and past Captains, Anne Michie and Beryl Denham to present the trophies.

The day could not have been the success it was without the tireless assistance of Wendy Cannings who was at the Club from dawn to dusk and Handicap Secretary Sue Crabb.

The Morning Cup (best 18 holes played in the morning) was won by Hanna Jacobsen (nett 66). Carole Baker was a close runner-up (nett 68).

The Scots Trophy (most improved score in the second round of the 36 hole championship) was shared by Prue Russell, Jane Broom and Rosie Jackman, (all improved by eight shots). Meanwhile, the Wellings Salver (best nett score over 36 holes) went to Sophie Keech (nett 141) runner-up Susan Moore (nett 142).

The prestigious Denham Bowl was won by Sophie Keech (gross 143) runner-up Jane Southcombe (gross 165).

Twos were scored by, Sophie Keech Caroline Baker and Jane Andrews.

SENIORS GOLF

DESPITE some early morning mist which quickly cleared the Seniors Section successfully stage their first open event of the year.

With entries from near and far, the full field enjoyed an excellent day of golf with the eventual winners of the four ball better ball competition being local duo Mike Brake & Terry Kearley from Bridport with 42 pints, beating Terry Snell & Alan Fisher from Canford Magna on countback.

Prestigious award

The day after Sophie Keech won her third successive Lyme Regis Club Championship, she was awarded the Junior Sports Performer Of The Year at Millfield School.

Sophie was presented with a framed certificate by former Millfield School pupil John McFall a bronze medalist in the 2008 paralympic games in Beijing.

Sophie has also been announced as one of five Millfield Sports pupils shortlisted for the 2016 Rio De Janeiro Olympics.

Sophie said "I really had no idea I would win and when they said my name in front of such a large, talented audience it was one of the most surreal moments of my life - I still can't quite believe it.

I had my family and coach Karen Nicholls there supporting me which made the evening even more special."

At the dinner Sophie also went on to receive her first Millfield School team full sports colours, an evening completed by a talk from another former Millfield pupil and 2012 Olympic gold medal hopeful, Helen Glover, who will be pairing with Heather Stanning in rowing in next months games.

SENIORS SECTION

IN good weather last Friday, 37 seniors participated in the first round of the "Masters".

This annual event, like its namesake at Augusta is decided over four medal rounds, this year on successive Fridays.

The scores reflected the excellent golfing conditions with Tony Horton (26) winning the first round and taking an early lead with a very impressive 65 nett. Nick Stanton (23) was two strokes behind in second place with a net 67 nett.

Two players were a further shot behind on 68 nett, third place on countback went to Bill Polley (16) with Mick Tones (17) the player to miss out on the prizes.

FIRSTLY, congratulations to the Palariat team who beat Wrangaton at Dainton Park in their first round 3 and 2 last on Sunday.

JUNE MEDAL

DIVISION One was won by David Wills (6) with a nett 72. Second place went to Chris Glover (12) with a nett 74 and in third was Alan Morgan (10) with a nett 76.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

TEXAS SCRAMBLE

ANOTHER fun game, a Texas Scramble, for the members to form into teams of three.

Our handicaps worked out as 10% of their combined number which accounts for the final results ending in decimal points.

Now because this was a fun game the eventual placings didn't find their way on to the results board and because I was so surprised to learn my team had come second I forgot to make a note of the other winners.

Our final card number was 63.8 and that the winners carded 63.5. I remember a very happy and smiling Stan Squire telling me in great detail that it was his 'chip in' on the 18th that was the 0.3 of a shot that beat us. A big apology for forgetting the names of the other members who played.

MIXED TREBLE SIX

THE Mixed Treble six competition was played in fine weather on Diamond Jubilee Bank Holiday Monday.

The winners with 43 points, were Charlie & Catherine Doherty. In 2nd place, on count back, with 41, were Terry Dimond & Penny Blackburn, and in 3rd place, also with 41, were Peter & Heather Clarke.

There were three 2s, all on the 2nd hole. Peter Clarke, Cyril Dan and Paul Coates each received nine balls.

Eleven teams took part in a three-ball team event at Axe Cliff to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee on Monday, June 4th.

With one player in each team able to double their points on each hole it was uncertain until the last team was back in the clubhouse as to what a good score would be to win.

As it was, the last team to complete the competition, namely Helen Kenworthy, Alan Kenworthy and Brian Kemp, proved to be the worthy winners with 119 points and they were awarded first place in the Mixed team award.

The winning ladies team prize were Janet Dack, Liz Wheeldon & Di Rogers. Meanwhile, the winners of the three-man event were Paul Curtin, Geoff Greenslade and Paul Cordwell.

running Honiton RC

STEVE Briggs of Honiton Running Club took part in last week's Plymouth Half Marathon writes Judy Davey.

It was an overcast day with fine drizzle at times. A large field of around 4000 led to quite a congested first mile, however this enabled Steve to go out slow and try and pick up in the second-half.

He was really pleased with a time of 1 hour 47 which was four minutes quicker than last year. Lesley Crocker also took part and was delighted to finish in 1:58.

Last Saturday evening saw the running of Axe Valley Runners and Umberne Hall Committee's Umberne Ug which is a tough multi-terrain six mile race.

Ninety one runners competed in the race which was won by Tim Lenton from Norfolk in a time of 41 minutes 27 seconds. Local Honiton runners were led home by Richard Harvey who had an amazing run to finish in 7th place in 47:24. Much to his delight and surprise, he even managed to win a bottle of wine for coming first in his age category.

Steve Davey was next back in 11th place in 49:03 followed by Bruce Strawbridge in 21st place in 50:53. Judy Davey led the Honiton ladies back to finish 39th in 56:26 and she was followed by John Burgess in 48th place and a time of 58:51. Tracey Strawbridge came 71st in 1:13:15 followed just one place later by Wendy Williams in a time of 1:13:56.

There was also a 2.5k fun run on offer and the Honiton juniors produced some spectacular results with Iain Ross winning the race in 11:14 followed by Jake Harvey in 2nd place in 12:38.

New member Lydia Corr was 25th in 19:19 and mother and daughter Kathy and Ellen Layzell ran together to finish 28th in a time of 20:17. There were 35 runners.

Following some dreadfully wet weather earlier in the week, it was actually perfect weather conditions for running and even the barbecue afterwards took place in the dry.

Thanks to everyone involved with the organization, especially Rick and Eleanor Wood and the people who made the delicious cakes!

netball Honiton

IT was back to normal for Honiton Netball after the break for the Jubilee celebrations. writes Graham Ingram

For the second week in a row the biggest climber were Bo-Peeps who moved up from 7th to 4th place, with Hi Q also climbing as a result of their win against Updownman. Flamings moved up to second with wasps holding on to 3rd spot.

Bo-Peeps were up against Sidmouth Toucans, a side who have pushed the top sides this season, and at quarter time were just two goals adrift at 18-20.

The second quarter was a close affair with Peeps just edging ahead at 25-24. With Debbie Wheeler playing well they dominated the third period to open up a 37-27 lead. Although Toucans were playing well, and especially Sarah Sparks, it was a win for Bo-Peeps by 44-31.

Crucial

With Hi Q starting with an advantage it was that was to prove crucial in a very even game. With Emma Truscott doing well for Hi Q and Julie Heal for Updownman it was a thrilling game but with the sides scoring evenly it was Hi Q who hung on to take the points from their 32-28 victory.

In the Pixies - Wasps game the Pixies started with a goal advantage that by quarter time the Wasps had reduced to 11-16.

In the second quarter both sides had scoring difficulties but with some great play for Pixies from Emma Griffin at centre, so that Pixies were still in front by 21-17.

The third quarter saw Wasps gain the advantage to lead 27-25. The final quarter belonged to Wasps with some great play from Zoe Gresham, one of their junior players, at GA to finish the game with a comfortable 42-25 win.

Final game of the night saw Flamings up against JD Tyres. At quarter time Flamings had reduced their starting deficit to 13-17 and by half way were 31-18 to the good.

With Karen Hall in fine form they never looked back despite the best efforts of Tanya Broom for JD, and finished the game victors by 66-23.

Wrangle delays Tigers new home Ottery St Mary step down

AXMINSTER Town football club's move to their new home will still be taking place.

The Tigers chairman, and outgoing manager, Ray Self confirmed to VIEW SPORTS last Thursday that despite several issues with developers Westward Homes the contract for the development of Sector Lane remains in place and is binding.

Self said: "We have been disappointed by the developers not meeting our specifications on several key issues with the new ground."

"After 10 years trying to get these plans in place we are reluctant to let the construction go ahead until we are completely satisfied that we are going to get what we have agreed.

"Subsequently we will be playing at Sector Lane until the end of 2012 at the earliest.

"In the mean time we have instructed the developers to go ahead and prepare the new pitches at the the Chard Road ground which we hope to have seeded in September."

Axminster had planned to rent Ottery St Mary's Washbrook Meadows Ground next season whilst their new purpose-built facility was constructed.

Ottery drop down to D&E
MEANWHILE Ottery St Mary have opted to drop out of the South-West peninsula league. The Otters finished bottom of the SWP East division last season and have taken the step to drop back down in to the Devon & Exeter League where they will take their place in division three.

Had the Otters been officially relegated they would have been allocated a place in the D&E Premier division.

SWP League secretary Phil Hiscox confirmed the situation on the league's website saying: "Ottery St Mary AFC have withdrawn from the SW Peninsula League."

"The club's reasons are best left for the club officers to respond to but finance was the principle reason given to the league. The withdrawal was well beyond the required date of March 31st and as such the club have been fined and I can confirm that has now been paid, meaning they have no remaining obligations to this league."

This withdrawal has left the proposed constitution for the East Division down to 15 clubs. However league officers have moved fast to transfer Plymstock United from the West so that both East and West have 16 clubs each.

Ottery St Mary have also entered a Reserves team that will compete in the D&E division seven.

Ashford takes the reins

PAUL Ashford has been appointed as successor to Ray Self as Axminster Town manager.

Ashford, who along with joint-manager Phil Margretts, led Sidmouth Town up into the South-West Peninsula league before stepping down after one game in August 2011, was appointed at the club's annual meeting last Sunday (June 3rd).

Ashford inherits a Tigers side that, along with neighbours Ottery St Mary who have subsequently dropped down to the Devon & Exeter League, were cast adrift by 22 points at the bottom of the South-West Peninsula League last season.

Ashford will clearly have to make some swathing changes if he is to make the Tigers competitive at that level.

There will be two new youth teams wearing the Axminster Tiger stripes next season. Club chairman Self said: "We will be forming new under 11 and under 18 teams. We been approached by Perry Street FC who have some U11s but not enough to raise a team."

"The under 18s will be playing midweek floodlit games, friendlies initially, with a view to having a settled squad in place for the beginning of the 2013-14 season when we will be able to play from our new
